DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. The claims are nonenabling because of undue breadth since the claim is a single means claim and does not appear in combination with another recited element of means. A single means claim, i.e., where a means recitation does not appear in combination with another recited element of means, is subject to an undue breadth rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. In re Hyatt, 708 F.2d 712, 714-715, 218 USPQ 195, 197 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (A single means claim which covered every conceivable means for achieving the stated purpose was held nonenabling for the scope of the claim because the specification disclosed at most only those means known to the inventor.). When claims depend on a recited property, a fact situation comparable to Hyatt is possible, where the claim covers every conceivable structure (means) for achieving the stated property (result) while the specification discloses at most only those known to the inventor.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2627

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The structure of the apparatus claimed in claim 18 is unclear since no structure is claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1, 4, 5, 8, 9, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moser et al. (hereinafter Moser - Holographic Memory with Localized Recording).

Claims 1, 4, 5, 8, 9, and 18 are rejected for the same reasons as discussed in the previous Office Action, mailed on 1/8/2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Moser et al. (hereinafter Moser - Holographic Memory with Localized Recording).

Claims 6 and 7 are rejected for the same reasons as discussed in the previous Office Action, mailed on 1/8/2007.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claims 10-17, 19, and 20 are allowed.

See reasons for indication of allowable subject matter in the previous Office Action, mailed on 1/8/2007.

10. Claims 2 and 3 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

See reasons for indication of allowable subject matter in the previous Office Action, mailed on 1/8/2007.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments filed 3/5/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants, on pages 4-5 of the Response filed on 3/5/2007, argue that Moser does not disclose erasing a hologram with a signal light beam and a reference light beam. Examiner respectfully disagrees. In the interview with Applicants on 3/27/2007, the Examiner agreed that the Moser reference did not disclose erasing a hologram with a signal light beam and a reference light beam wherein the signal light beam and the reference light beam both contain random data. Alternatively, the Examiner asserts that that limitation is not found within claim 1. Claim 1 indicates that only the signal light beam holds random pattern data. Moser does disclose an apparatus (see Figure 3 on page 3910) wherein a violet, or signal, beam is crossed with a green (reference) beam in order to selectively erase the hologram (see enlarged portion in Figure 3) wherein the signal beam is run through a spatial light modulator (shown as SLM in Figure 3) which encodes the light with random pattern data (see second column on page 3913; see also second column on page 3912 – note that the reference specifically states that the green [reference] and violet [signal] beams are used together to erase the hologram).
